Tuesday 30 March	10.00-18.30
Wednesday 31 March	10.00-18.30

Visits on closed days can be arranged by prior arrangement, subject to staff availability; contact the Library to make an appointment. A decision on whether to extend the Library opening hours will be made on 28 April. Updates will be posted on the Library's website and circulated via the e-bulletin. Access to manuscripts and certain printed material will continue to be restricted until the collections displaced by the building works have been re-housed and the new strong rooms are commissioned. Manuscripts will only be produced with the express authorisation of the Director, Dr David Wykes (director@dwlib.co.uk), to whom all requests should be made.

Members can continue to borrow up to twelve post-1875 books, journals and/or pamphlets in good condition. Renewals up to six times can be arranged in person on open days and by telephone, letter and email (enquiries@dwlib.co.uk).
